

Creativity Intersects at Salon Art + Design NY 2025

November 20, 2025
Posted in Art

Creativity was on full display at Salon Art + Design 2025 fair in New York, for its 14th edition. The fair drew record attendance and broke sales at the historic Park Avenue Armory in NY from November 6-10. This premier event solidified its reputation for masterfully blending creative talents in modern and contemporary design with fine and decorative arts.

Featured: detail of Valeriya Izyak's Nexus Right.

Valeriya Izyak: Nexus Right, 2025, porcelain petals. Mia Karlova Galerie, Amsterdam. Made from individual porcelain petals.

"Lineage & Future Craft," presented by Galerie Lerebours in collaboration with and designed by frenchCALIFORNIA.

Left to right: Giraldaire Comette de Saint Cyr's Pair of Solaris Lamps, 2025, glazed ceramic; Alexandra Moacanin's Tapestry N°18, 2022, hand-woven wool on cotton canvas; Erwan Boulouard's Ecailles Enfilade, 2024, patinated and polished brass marquetry, burnt wood; Emmanuel Babled's Pyros Vase IV, 2016, handblown Murano Glass; François Corbenn's Gold Mirror, 2022, polished bronze. Twenty First Gallery, New York.

Large four-door sideboard by Audoux-Minnet, crafted from limed oak. Karl Kemp, New York.