BIOGRAPHY

“Chic mix and match” is how this multifaceted French architect and interior designer, daughter of a Spanish mother, defines her style, building spaces by combining materials, motifs and historical periods. Her great attention to detail helps to enrich any environment with unique features, with the specific intention of giving it a new character, using colour, light and sources of inspiration that she grasps, captures and conveys every time. She is not afraid of competition or challenges, be they boutiques for high-end jewellery brands or trendy
