3. “Inscape” at Twenty First Gallery | New York

The latest exhibition at Renaud Vuillat’s Twenty First Gallery in Manhattan shines a spotlight on the magic of creative instinct, the powerful force that guides an artistic practice yet is unable to be fully explained. Opening April 13, this group show, titled “Inscape,” features 35 singular works by over a dozen designers and artists on the gallery’s roster, among them Béatrice Serre, Nicolas Aubagnac, Emmanuel Babled, and Jean-Marie Fiori. Highlights include six new reflective furnishings by French artist François Corbeau, as well as a bewitching gold and platinum mirror by Italian ceramicist Giuseppe Ducrot, who recently completed the façades of Christian Louboutin’s new boutique hotel in Portugal.
