Design at the beach – Welcome to Miami! by Camilla Peus Full of sun, drinks at cool pool bars and lots of design discoveries from December 6th to 10th at Design Miami/ 2023.

With extraordinary creations by well-known designers and young talents, Design Miami / 2023 will once again become a global forum for design.

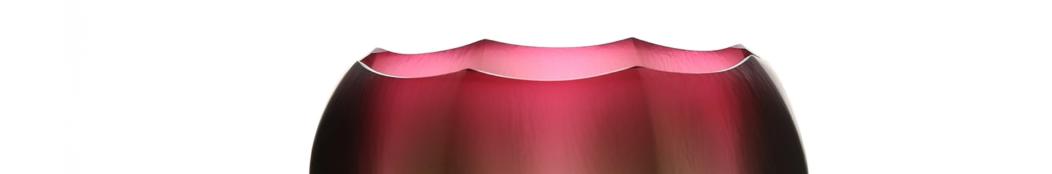

More than 40 presentations in galleries and showrooms are dedicated to the topic: The state of affairs . The topic was chosen by the newly appointed chief curator Anna Carnick . » The trade fair has always been a platform for inspiring, creative exchange. Design can be a powerful tool for telling stories – and stories make it possible to find access to the humanity of others.« The focus is therefore on valuing human relationships – told through objects that reflect a variety of experiences from around the world.
